Supporting Evidence: Dean Shelton is considered in violation of his conditions of supervised release by being charged with fourth degree assault domestic violence on February 20, 2016.

Notice was received on February 20, 2016, that Mr. Shelton was arrested and booked into the Franklin County Jail for fourth degree assault domestic violence. According to police reports, the Franklin County Sheriff's Office was dispatched to 871 Fir Road in Eltopia, Washington, for a report of a disturbance between Dean Shelton and his father, Larry Shelton. When officers arrived, they contacted Mr. Shelton and noted that he was uncooperative and very agitated. Mr. Shelton would not give the officers a statement and while talking with the officers, he started yelling across the road to his father.

Officers contacted Larry Shelton. Larry said that 2 days prior Mr. Shelton had gotten very upset with him and said, "One of us will be dead before long." Larry stated that this morning he came outside to pump up a tire with an air compressor when Mr. Shelton came out and was upset. Mr. Shelton proceeded to knock over the air compressor and yell at Larry. Larry stated while Mr. Shelton was yelling at him, Mr. Shelton was also holding a screwdriver and yelled, "I ought to kill you right now." Larry said he was not sure if Mr. Shelton had attempted to use the screwdriver to hit or stab him, but as he believed Mr. Shelton was going to hit him, he had turned and covered himself.

Larry attempted to walk away from the house through an open field. Mr. Shelton followed him and continued yelling and pushing up against him. Larry stated as they got further into the open field, Mr. Shelton pushed him to the ground. Officers noted Larry had dirt on the back of his pants and coat which were consistent with him being pushed down in the field. Officers were taken to the spot where this occurred and they noticed an air compressor on its side and two sets of footprints leading out to the field.
